THE ULTIMATE IN SOCIAL DISTANCING
BY MY YACHT® GROUP

You have been telecommuting and zoom-ing for the past however-many months. The kids are going stir crazy (though perhaps not as much as their parents!) and everybody needs a safe place to escape, relax, re-group and recharge. But where do you go and feel safe whilst doing it? Simply put, there is no more luxurious way to get away from it all than aboard your own floating second home. Whether it's wintering in the Caribbean - hello, St. Bart's! - summering along the Amalfi Coast, or taking the home office and home schooling on board and out to sea for the foreseeable future, a yacht creates a safe space with endless opportunities to explore, work, and relax. My Yacht® Group, renowned for producing its curated HNW events on board some of the world's finest superyachts at high profile global gatherings (mark your calendars: Monaco F1, May 20-23, 2021!), is fully independent and uniquely positioned, with access to a vast array of yachts, superyachts, and megayachts, both for charter and sale. With interest rates at an all-time low, and yachts qualifying for tax deductions as a second home, here's a selection of for-sale floating beauties to whet your appetite.
