10 outstanding superyachts attending the FLIBS 2017

The Fort Lauderdale International Boat Show (FLIBS) commences on the 1st of November, with the 58th edition presenting some of the largest and most technically accomplished superyachts ever built. From classic refits to new launches that have already started earning their luxury charter reputations during the Mediterranean yachting season, these are ten superyachts to spot during the event.

TV

One of the largest superyachts on display at FLIBS, 78m/257ft motor yacht TV is an impressive eight with exceptional spa facilities to match. Built by Lürssen, Espen Oelino is responsible for her engineering and exterior styling while Alberto Pinto completed her opulent interiors.

Guests have a choice of heart-stopping fun with a tender capable of 70 knots and 20m water slide. Scuba diving equipment is among the latest water toys available, and her status as a PADI Certified Dive Centre gives guests of all ages the chance to earn their PADI diving license among some of the world's most awe-inspiring locations.

You can charter TV this winter from EUR 850,000 per week plus expenses.

Cloudbreak

Multi-award winning expedition yacht CLOUDBREAK will also be in attendance at FLIBS, showcasing her beautiful design. A finalist in three categories for her power, styling and recreational facilities, 73m/238ft is a minimalist modern design that brings guests closer to the natural surroundings of such destinations as the Antarctic.

Superyacht CLOUDBREAK

While cruising, guests can pass the time with massage therapies, soaking in the Jacuzzi or taking a dip in the swimming pool. The helipad is a welcome additional feature, allowing guests a bird's eye view of incredible remote destinations that few ever lay eyes on.

Charter CLOUDBREAK in the most remote and exotic locations from EUR 750,000 per week plus expenses.

Double Down

Following an extensive refit in 2016, M/Y DOUBLE DOWN features cutting-edge technology with a nod to tradition in her interior design. With four decks dedicated to lounging and relaxation, every guest has a choice of locations for indoor recreation or dining alfresco in style.

DOUBLE DOWN

Equipped with a cinema, jet skis and status as a PADI Certified Dive Centre, she follows high-octane fun with relaxation for the whole family.

Available for charter from EUR 400,00 per week plus expenses.

SuRI

The modern conversion of this 1976 vessel has resulted in a 63m/203ft motor yacht SuRI with an unrivaled selection of water toys and amenities for sports fishing, diving, and massage therapies.

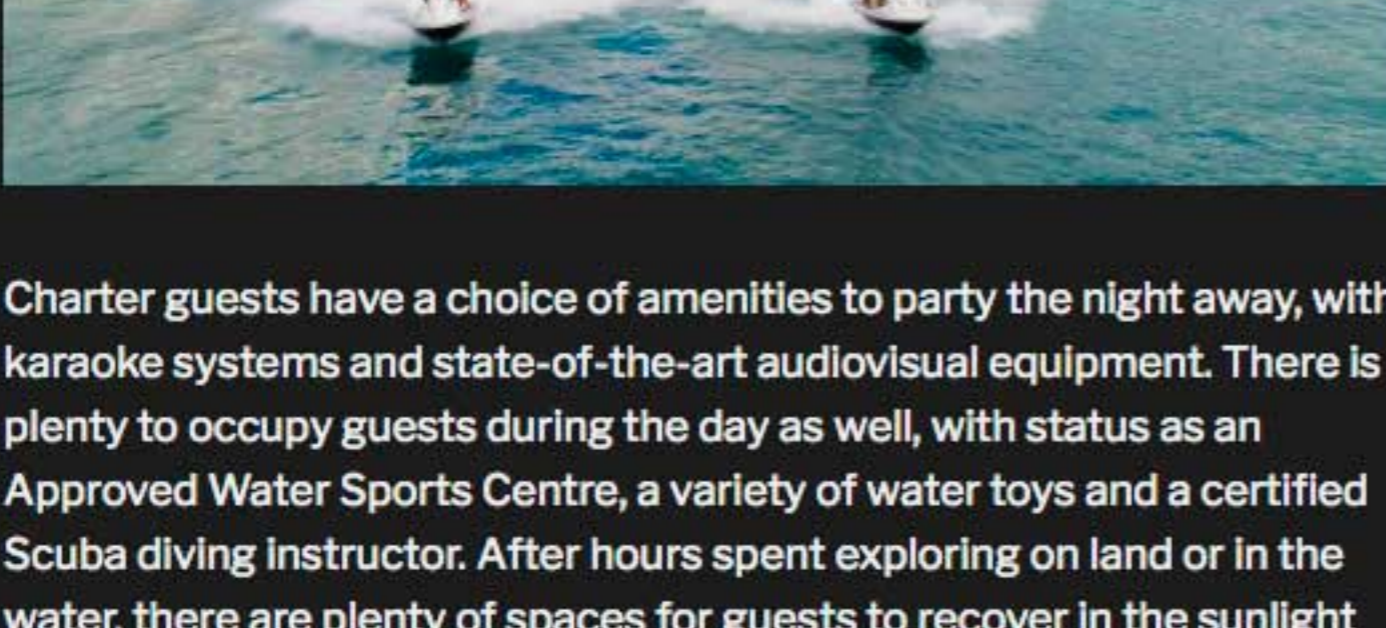

SuRI – Wakeboard

The living spaces include glass-bottomed tables that look down onto the fish swimming beneath the hull, a comprehensive gym and observation lounges with sweeping views. Coupled with PADI Certified Dive Centre status, a helipad and enough bikes and scooters to get about on land, she is the ultimate exploration vessel.

Discover the warm waters of the South Pacific and Asia aboard SuRI. She is available for charter from USD 350,000.

Apogee

Codecasa Yachts created 62m/203ft superyacht APOGEE with a classic interior to suit formal occasions and corporate event charters, and her interior detailing is breathtaking.

Charter guests have a choice of amenities to party the night away, with karaoke systems and state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment. There is plenty to occupy guests during the day as well, with status as an Approved Water Sports Centre, a variety of water toys and a certified Scuba diving Instructor. After hours spent exploring on land or in the water, there are plenty of spaces for guests to recover in the sunlight or shade.

Clorinda

Launched in early July, M/Y CLORINDA was the fourth Sport 120 superyacht delivered by ISA Yachts and was awarded the Millennium Yacht Design Award (MYDA). The first superyacht completed at the shipyard's recently acquired Ancona yard, CLORINDA is meaning milestone in the company's international profile.

Clorinda

The modern interiors use a contemporary color scheme of muted browns and off-white, while the ceiling lighting runs in lines against glossy textures for efficient light usage with an understated, minimalist appearance. The accommodation sleeps up to 10 guests across 5 cabins with a split-level Owner's suite. Three MTU 16V 2000 M96 diesel engines allow her to cruise at 27 knots and reach a top speed of 33 knots.

Skylar

Shortly after her launch, 38m/125ft luxury yacht SKYLAR entered the charter market and was an instant success over the Mediterranean yachting season. Featuring the exterior styling of Stefano Righini and interiors from British designers RWD, the crisp, contemporary living spaces flow into one another and place function and efficiency as essential environment characteristics.

Benetti SKYLAR

As well as custom furnishings across every level, the foredeck contains a spa pool, the sky lounge converts into a cinema, and the forward master suite has two side-balconies, making superyacht SKYLAR another successful feature-filled superyacht from Benetti.

Razan

Turquoise Yachts created the glittering 47m/154ft superyacht RAZAN in collaboration with H2 Yacht Design, producing stunning interiors with white panelling, stainless steel, and soft grey accents.

RAZAN

More than beauty, the lower deck is home to a spacious beach club with access to an extended swim platform, a gym, and a dive center. The sundeck is equally as enticing, and guests can soak in the spacious spa pool together while taking in uninterrupted views of each destination.

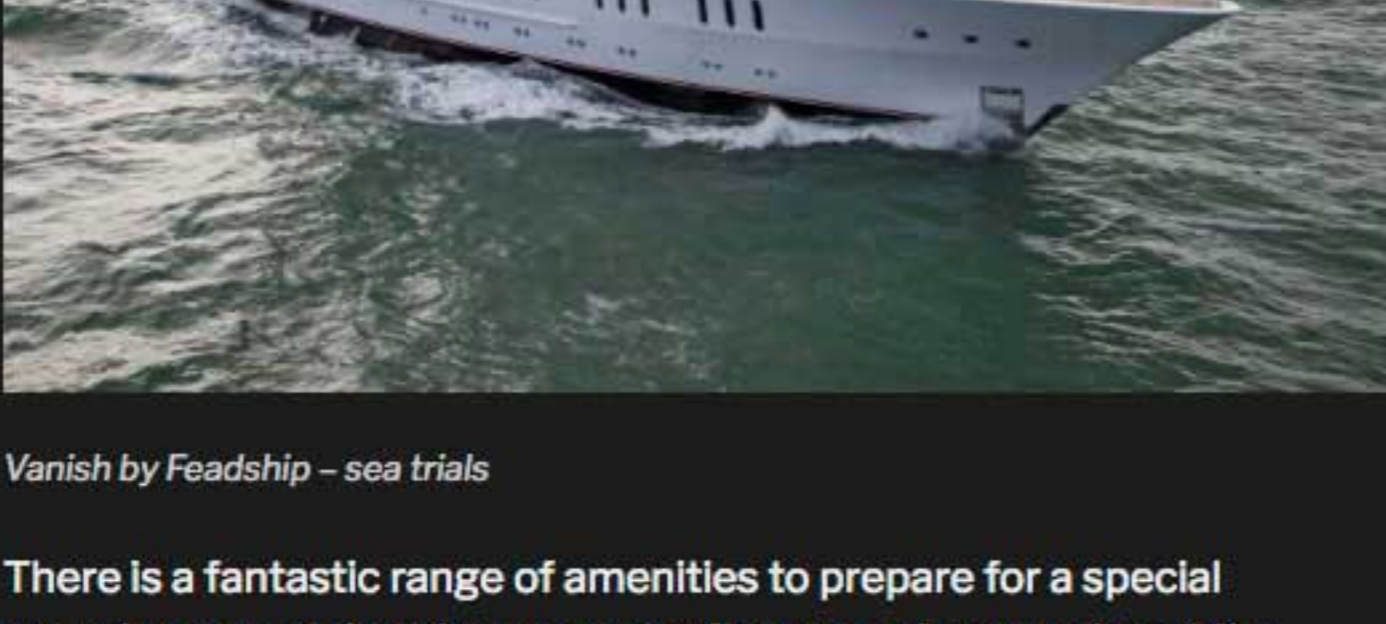

Vertige

Superyacht VERTIGE from Tankoa Yachts was another highly anticipated build, featuring the styling of renowned designers Francesco Paszkowski and Margherita Casprini, who worked on her exterior and interior respectively. She had a busy season in the Mediterranean following her entry into the charter market due to her desirable features which include an upper deck alfresco cinema that seats up to 20, a forward solarium and an additional open-air saloon.

Vanish

Leadship motor yacht VANISH was created following a concept by Eidsgaard Design and launched in 2016. At 66m/217ft, there is plenty of space aboard superyacht VANISH for up to 12 guests to unwind, and the 17 crewmen to ensure that everyone on board is well taken care of.

Vanish by Feadship – sea trials

There is a fantastic range of amenities to prepare for a special occasion or merely enjoy many an afternoon of pampering at the beach club, sauna, spa, massage room or beauty salon.

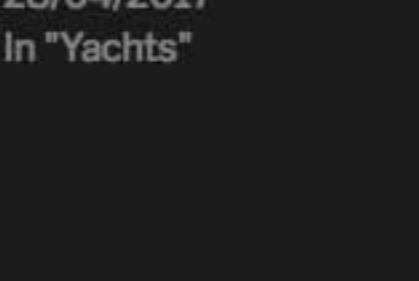

Many of the superyachts on this list are available for charter. Contact the expert brokers at CharterWorld for more information regarding the current charter status any of these superyachts.
