If you plan on attending Fort Lauderdale's International Boat Show this year, you are soon going to find that there will be so many amazing things to see and do, and you just won't have enough time to fit everything in.

So you are going to have to make a game-plan to make sure you don't miss out on what is most important to you. Perhaps we can help you out. FLIBS will display approximately 1,200 boats this year, which is way too many to see in only five days. You can try, but you might end up running past each one. To help you decide which boats to prioritize, here are three boat that are absolute must-sees this year.

1. Vanish
